

Systemic Policies Deployed by the U.S. Government to Stabilize Financial Institutions and Markets

Liquidity programs to keep financial institutions operating and credit flowing to consumers and businesses.

Guarantee programs to support critical funding markets for financial institutions.

Capitalization strategies with private and government capital to prevent the failure of systemic institutions and resolve uncertainty about the financial system.