Since last week the Main Street Lending Program has started operations; however, no funds have been extended so far. Treasury has contributed $104 billion in CARES Act funds to five Fed lending facilities to date.

Note on Treasury contributions to Fed facilities

The Treasury announced on April 9 that it intended to use funds available under the CARES Act to purchase equity in special purpose vehicles established under Fed lending programs. As of June 4, the Treasury invested a total of $104 billion in five facilities: equity investments of $10 billion into Commercial Paper Funding Facility LLC II, $37.5 billion into Corporate Credit Facilities LLC, $17.5 billion into Municipal Liquidity Facility LLC, and $37.5 billion into the Main Street Facilities LLC; and $1.5 billion in credit protection for the Money Market Mutual Fund Liquidity Facility.

Per the facility agreements, 85% of the equity contributions to the CCF, CPFF and MLF have been invested in nonmarketable Treasury securities; $31.9 billion for the CCF, $8.5 billion for the CPFF, and $14.9 billion for the MLF. These investments are reflected in the balance of the respective facilities. The equity contributed to the MSF on June 1 has not been invested yet.
